Sarai Korpacz releases SWAY, a song inspired by Ephesians 5:31-32, promoting Christ-centered marriages as a foundation for healing homes and communities.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, February 14, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Christian singer-songwriter Sarai Korpacz is set to release her latest single, SWAY, on Valentine's Day, delivering a powerful message on Christlike love in marriage. Accompanying the single is a visually stunning music video, further emphasizing the song's theme of unity, faith, and the God-ordained foundation of marriage.

Inspired by Ephesians 5:31-32, SWAY reflects on the divine mystery of marriage as a representation of Christ and the Church. As the founder of Heal Our Land Yeshua, a non-profit organization dedicated to spiritual, physical, and emotional restoration, Korpacz recognizes that "God created marriage. Searching for answers outside His original intent is futile, like chasing after the wind." Further, "Marriage is the bedrock of society," she shares. "When marriages are strong and rooted in Christ, families flourish, communities thrive, and ultimately, our land is healed."

All of Sarai Korpacz's music, including SWAY, is freely available for download on Facebook, making it accessible to all. This release is an opportunity to partner with individuals and families for the good of the land, encouraging everyone to reflect on the importance of Christ-centered relationships and the role they play in strengthening our communities.
