About the Author

Debbie's journey is one of resilience, growth, and determination. Growing up in both Germany and Alaska, she experienced a diverse childhood that shaped her into a well-rounded person with a global perspective. Her love for hiking and travel reflects her adventurous spirit and appreciation for life's beauty.

With over 20 years of real estate investing experience, she has developed a deep understanding of building financial stability and wealth through smart investment strategies. However, her journey was not without challenges. After enduring a 10-year abusive marriage that brought significant financial setbacks, Debbie rebuilt her life with courage and tenacity, emerging stronger than ever.

Her experiences have fueled her passion for helping other women find financial freedom and independence. Through her personal story and real estate expertise, Debbie inspires women to take control of their financial futures, proving that it's never too late to start over and thrive.
