-- Australian indie-folk powerhouse THE POST's most anticipated release "Yellowstone" has landed on Spotify, marking a defining moment in authentic storytelling through music.

This soul-stirring track, which debuted yesterday, is already capturing listeners with its raw emotional depth and cinematic soundscape.

"Yellowstone" - New Single by THE POST

Yellowstone is about confronting what holds us back, burning fears in the fire, and emerging stronger, freer, and more in tune with ourselves and aligned with our souls' true calling”

Esther Bertram

Singer-songwriter Esther Bertram's masterpiece weaves a tapestry of transformation against the backdrop of haunting cello arrangements by Alasdair Henry. "Yellowstone" transcends typical folk boundaries, delivering a visceral experience that resonates with anyone seeking their own frontier of freedom. "This song represents the moment we choose to burn away our fears and step into our power," shares Bertram. "It's the most personal piece I've written in my hundreds of songs, and hearing how it's already connecting with listeners is deeply moving."

The track features:

- Bertram's powerful, emotion-laden vocals
- Henry's soul-stirring cello performance
- Cinematic production that mirrors vast, untamed landscapes
- Raw, unfiltered lyrics that cut straight to the heart
