At K3 Holdings and Alpine LA Properties, we understand the power of kindness and how even small acts can create lasting positive change.”

Michael Kadisha

As leading real estate investment and property management companies, K3 Holdings and Alpine LA Properties believe that kindness is not just a single-day event but a core value that enhances lives and strengthens neighborhoods year-round.

“At K3 Holdings and Alpine LA Properties, we understand the power of kindness and how even small acts can create lasting positive change,” said Michael Kadisha, Principal at K3 Holdings. “This day is an opportunity to remind ourselves that every gesture, whether it's a kind word, a helping hand, or a thoughtful act contributes to a more connected and caring community.”

National Random Acts of Kindness Day is a celebration of generosity and goodwill, encouraging people to spread positivity in ways big and small. This year, K3 Holdings and Alpine LA Properties are continuing their efforts to uplift communities by focusing on key initiatives, including:

- Supporting the homeless – Providing shelter and essential resources to those in need.
- Bridging the digital divide – Ensuring students have access to technology and educational tools.
- Fostering community connections – Encouraging residents, employees, and partners to participate in acts of kindness that create stronger neighborhoods.

“In a world that often feels divided, kindness has the power to bring us together,” said Nathan Kadisha, Principal at K3 Holdings. “Even small actions create ripples of goodwill that extend far beyond what we can see.”

K3 and Alpine leaders encourage residents, employees, and community members to take part in this day by performing their own acts of kindness and sharing positivity in their daily interactions. From simple gestures to larger community-driven efforts, every act contributes to a culture of kindness and inclusivity.

“Kindness is contagious, and when we make it a priority in our communities, we create a more supportive and thriving environment for everyone,” Michael Kadisha added. “We hope that by leading with kindness, we can inspire others to do the same, not just today, but every day.”

Beautiful, newly remodeled apartments at affordable rates.
