PHOENIX, AZ, UNITED STATES, October 1, 2025

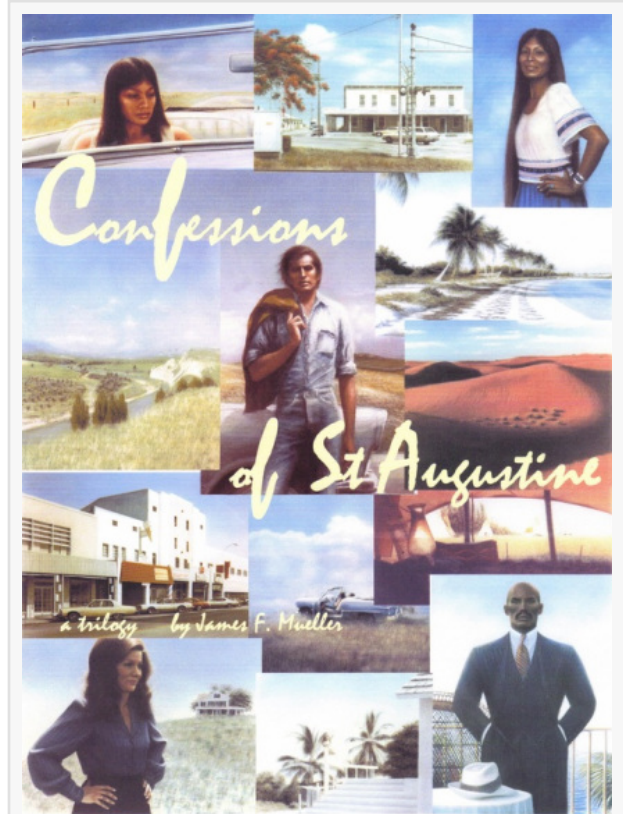

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Iconoclast Publishing is proud to announce the release of a limited second edition of Confessions of St. Augustine, a visually captivating and reflective work by internationally renowned author and artist James Mueller. This anticipated edition will be available for purchase in September 2025.

Initially published in 2013, Confessions of St. Augustine fuses Mueller's profound reflections with an extraordinary collection of his artwork, offering readers an immersive experience that bridges literary depth and visual expression. Widely regarded as a modern classic, the book has been praised for its thematic exploration of self-discovery, spirituality, and human connection. Its influence has been compared to literary staples like Catcher in the Rye for its introspective narrative and timeless relevance.

Iconoclast Publishing is excited to reintroduce Confessions of St. Augustine to a new audience. This second edition celebrates James Mueller's artistic legacy and honors the transformative impact of this important book. Each book is personally signed by the author.

This limited second edition will feature original artwork by James Mueller, providing unique insights into the book's artistic and literary significance, making it a true collector's item for art and literature enthusiasts. Pre-orders for the limited second edition of Confessions of St. Augustine will begin in September 2025 on the Mueller Art & Literature website.

As the excitement for the re-release of Confessions of St. Augustine builds, Mueller is also preparing to unveil his next political book, The Donnie Diaries: An Ode to Ipecac, a provocative

About James Mueller

James Mueller is an internationally recognized artist and author whose career spans decades of global acclaim. In addition to his artistic endeavors, Mueller was commissioned to create a collection of pastel paintings over the course of sixteen years for Robert (Bob) Abplanalp, a close friend of President Richard Nixon. Notably, in 1980, Mueller was personally commissioned by Abplanalp to paint a portrait of Nixon himself.

Mueller held a one-person art show at the prestigious Gallery Chardin in Paris in 1988, which garnered widespread praise despite challenges like a postal strike. His work has since been exhibited in major galleries worldwide, earning him acclaim for his distinctive artistic vision.

Beyond his artistic achievements, Mueller has devoted over twenty years to working with
