LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, February 20, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- NARUTO The Symphonic Experience

(www.narutoinconcert.com), fresh off its successful European tour seen by more than 60,000 fans, will visit more than 60 cities on its first North American tour kicking off February 28 at the Old National Events Plaza in Evansville, Indiana. Acclaimed conductors Emily Marshall (Conductor/Music Director) and Heidi Joosten (Associate Conductor) will helm the orchestra performing the most iconic songs and themes from the series, live-to-picture, as scenes are projected on a full-size, HD cinema screen. Audiences will get their chance to see an original, unforgettable two-hour feature film (shown with subtitles) meticulously created by Julien Vallespi and Quentin Benayoun from the first 220 original episodes of the beloved NARUTO animated series that is currently celebrating the 20th anniversary of its original TV anime adaptation.

In 2025, NARUTO The Symphonic Experience will visit more than 60 cities on its first North American tour.

Produced by GEA Live, Un Pour Tous Productions, and RoadCo Entertainment, NARUTO The Symphonic Experience will stop in some of the largest North American cities including Los Angeles, Boston, Dallas, Toronto, Atlanta, Orlando, Seattle, and Washington D.C. "I'm so excited to bring the incredible music of NARUTO to life all across the country," says Marshall. "The score is so diverse and thrilling that I'm sure it's truly going to be an unforgettable experience for fans everywhere."

Marshall is a renowned conductor, keyboardist, and music director who has served on Broadway as music director and vocal arranger, and performed at legendary venues like Madison Square Garden and The Hollywood Bowl. Joosten is a Jeff Award-winning music director, composer, and orchestrator who has worked on over 125 productions. Her work has been performed across the U.S., Canada, Europe, and Australia. Both conductors more recently worked together on the live touring concert productions of Avatar: The Last Airbender in Concert and Spider-Man: Into the Spider-Verse.

With more than 250 million copies sold, NARUTO by Masashi Kishimoto is a globally beloved shonen manga that ran from 1999 to 2014, following Naruto Uzumaki's journey in pursuing his dreams of being Hokage. Its anime adaptation, including Naruto Shippuden (2007–2017), has captivated audiences worldwide, spawning films, games, merchandise, and even Kabuki performances. To create NARUTO The Symphonic Experience, producer Julien Vallespi meticulously selected the most iconic moments from over 70 hours of the anime, ensuring seamless synchronization between the live orchestra and on-screen action for an unforgettable experience. "This symphonic rock concert honors the legacy of Kishimoto's anime and Masuda's acclaimed compositions," says Vallespi.
