“Our expanded inpatient mental health services are designed to provide a sanctuary for healing, equipped with the latest therapeutic techniques and delivered by a team of dedicated mental health professionals,” said Clint

Kreider, Clinical Director at Still Water Wellness Group. “We have incorporated a range of unique therapies, including cognitive-behavioral therapy, mindfulness-based stress reduction, and holistic approaches like yoga and meditation, to ensure that our clients receive the most effective and personalized care possible."

The demand for inpatient mental health services in Orange County has surged due to increased awareness of mental health issues, population growth, and historically limited availability of specialized care. "As awareness of the importance of mental health continues to grow, so does the need for accessible, high-quality treatment options," explained Kreider. "Our facility's expansion is a direct response to this urgent community need, providing a critical resource for residents of Orange County and beyond."

Still Water Wellness Group's facility in Lake Forest is designed to offer a peaceful and supportive environment for recovery. With state-of-the-art amenities and scenic grounds, it stands as a leading provider of inpatient mental health services, dedicated to improving the lives of those struggling with mental health challenges.
