With Clarity Introduces The Bond Collection

The collection, which will launch with two signature pieces – The Bond Necklace and The Bond Bracelet, exudes elegance, timelessness, and versatility. Following the motif of “Bonded by love,” these brilliant pieces are inspired by cable links and interlocking spirals. The designs represent the infinite connection between individuals, showcasing how two eternal circles are woven together to create a powerful bond.

“We are thrilled to introduce The Bond Collection and honor the powerful relationships that shape our lives,” shares With Clarity CEO Marie Audier. “Bonds lie at the core of the With Clarity experience, and this collection is a celebration of the deep connections shared with loved ones.” Co-founder Anubh Shah adds, “Each design is a testament to those cherished relationships—whether with a spouse or partner, a best friend, or family.”

Each design incorporates With Clarity’s signature emblem, featuring a seamless fusion of circles that symbolize the strength and eternity of a bond. Created with hundreds of micro-pavé diamonds set by master artisans, every curve, facet, and finish reflects the dedication of impeccable craftsmanship and attention to detail.

This Spring, The Bond Collection will expand to include additional designs such as earrings, rings, bracelets, and pendants, offering even more ways to celebrate connection. Offered in premium 18K white gold, yellow gold, rose gold, and platinum, the limited line ranges from 7 to 18 carats with F VVS quality diamonds of the utmost caliber.
