The Cloud Awards is one of the longest-running awards platforms of its kind, recognizing the latest achievements and innovations in cloud computing. Organizations that reached the finalist stage have had their nominations reviewed by the judging panel, resulting in the winners named today. The program received entries from organizations of all sizes from across the globe, including the USA and Canada, the UK and Europe, the Middle East, and APAC.

The program itself covers multiple aspects of cloud computing across 36 categories, including overall excellence (e.g. innovation and disruption), systems and processes (e.g. Payroll and Automation), certain technologies (e.g. SaaS and IoT), pieces of work (e.g. projects, migrations or integrations), and workplace excellence (e.g. consultancy, most promising startup, and 'green' credentials).

CEO of The Cloud Awards, James Williams, said: "We're very proud to announce the winners of The 2024/25 Cloud Awards. With such a strong field of finalists our judges have had an enviable and rewarding task in selecting the winners – those announced today have demonstrated an exceptional level of ingenuity and commitment to their craft.

Alcatel-Lucent Enterprise's placement as a winner is richly deserved and we're delighted to recognize them through this award. We look forward with great anticipation to seeing how they build on this success in the months and years to come. Many congratulations from myself, and The Cloud Awards team."

Moussa Zaghdoud, EVP, Cloud Communications Business Division, said: "We are thrilled and honored to have been named a winner in the Best Use of Telephony / Unified Communications in Cloud Computing category in The 2024/25 Cloud Awards. This accolade is a great reward for the hard work our team has carried out over the past 12 months, and underscores our commitment to delivering an outstanding solution and service to our customers.”

Alcatel·Lucent
Enterprise
