Zypto: A Leader in the Evolving Crypto Payments Landscape

Zypto continues to establish itself as a major player in the crypto payments space, forming strategic partnerships with MoneyGram, Stellar, Algorand, and other industry leaders. By developing robust payment solutions such as their crypto payment gateway, crypto bill payments system and crypto VISA cards, Zypto is bridging the gap between digital assets and everyday transactions, making cryptocurrency more practical and usable. Moreover they are integrating more and more of these products into their versatile and user-friendly Crypto Wallet App.

The launch of the Pi dApp represents an important moment for Pi holders, offering new avenues to utilize their assets in real-world applications. With Zypto's continuous innovation and expanding financial solutions, Pi Network users can expect further advancements in their ability to transact using Pi Coin through Zypto products and services.

Zypto's Pi Payment Gateway, Gift Cards and Bill Payments

The V1 Zypto Pi dApp allows Pioneers to help test the beta version of Zypto's Pi Payment Gateway. As part of this rollout, Zypto is offering $1 worth of ZYPs, the company's reward points, to participants as a thank you for helping to test the proof of concept system. These ZYPs can be redeemed within the Zypto DeFi Wallet app for a variety of financial services, including bill payments, gift cards, and balance top-ups for Zypto VISA cards.

In addition to the beta gateway, the Pi dApp will soon introduce further features, such as the ability to purchase gift cards and other products using Pi Coin.

Zypto's Commitment to the Pi Network

Zypto has consistently communicated its vision of fully integrating Pi Network into its full ecosystem of products and services, and this latest launch underscores its commitment. In recent posts on social media, Zypto confirmed they are also already working on a full integration of Pi Network into their DeFi wallet and payments app for Android and iOS.

"We founded Zypto to provide simple and convenient ways for people to spend their virtual assets in the real world." said Joe Parkin, Co-Founder of Zypto. "Our vision aligns closely with Pi Network's goal of making cryptocurrency accessible and practical for everyday use. We're Pioneers too!"
