

Michigan-Based Highline Spirits Wins Big at the 2025 World Whiskies Awards

Founder/CEO Christi Lower's Vision for Innovation Earns Two Prestigious Titles on a World Scale

DEXTER, MI, UNITED STATES, February 19, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Highline Spirits is thrilled to announce its double victory at the 2025 World Whiskies Awards, securing top honors in two highly competitive categories:

- Best American Rye Under 12 Years – Highline Triple Rye
- Best Non-Kentucky Finished Bourbon – Highline Double Oaked Bourbon

The American awards were announced on February 13th at the historic Brown Hotel in Louisville, KY, where an esteemed panel of World Whisky Inductees, Master Distillers, Master Blenders, and industry titans judged entries through a rigorous blind tasting process. The World Whiskies Awards remain one of the most prestigious global competitions, recognizing only the finest spirits from around the world.

A Michigan-Made Vision for Excellence

Highline Spirits is the vision of Christi Lower, CEO and Founder, a proud Michigan native whose passion for whisky and innovation has put her brand on the world stage. Christi has redefined whisky by blending time-honored craftsmanship with bold, modern techniques. Her commitment to quality, refinement, and breaking industry norms has propelled Highline Spirits to international acclaim, proving that world-class whisky isn't just made in traditional strongholds—it's made wherever vision, skill, and a relentless pursuit of excellence come together.
