

Savant Wins G2's 2025 Best Software Award in Top 100 Fastest Growing Category

Explosive growth and rapid adoption with F500 and pioneering companies secure Savant as high-growth winner in notable category

SAN MATEO, CA, UNITED STATES, February 20, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Savant Labs, the AI-powered automation platform for business analysts, today announced it has been named to G2's 2025 Best Software Awards in the Fastest Growth category. G2's annual Best Software Awards ranks the world's best software companies and products based on authentic, timely reviews from millions of real verified users.

Receiving this Best Software Award recognition validates Savant Labs' mission to empower companies to make their best intelligent decisions through AI-powered data, reports and insights. Enterprise leaders are turning to AI-powered analytics automation to address the inefficiencies associated with manual spreadsheet processes and time-consuming data engineering integration projects associated with first-generation self-service analytics tools. By adopting Savant, enterprises can improve operational efficiency and team productivity through its innovative, AI-powered, and cloud-first platform, all while ensuring data governance is managed and maintained.

"This award is a testament to our team's dedication to delivering an innovative analytics automation solution that delivers real tangible value to our customers," states Chitrang Shah, CEO and Co-Founder. "Being honored as a G2 2025 Best Software Awards winner reflects our team's commitment to product excellence and unwavering focus on our customers."

"The stakes for choosing the right business software are higher than ever," said Godard Abel, co-founder & CEO at G2. "With over 180,000 software products and services listings and 2.8 million verified user reviews in the G2 marketplace, we're proud to help companies navigate these
