

Prestige Men's Health Plans Expansion into Three New Markets

Prestige Men's Health plans to expand its Acoustic Wave Therapy for Erectile Dysfunction treatment into Houston, Tampa, and Phoenix.

HOLLADAY, UT, UNITED STATES, April 14, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Prestige Men's Health, a leader in men's wellness and Erectile Dysfunction (ED) treatments, is actively developing a business plan to expand into three additional U.S. markets. The initial expansion research will focus on Houston, TX, Tampa, FL, and Phoenix, AZ, with the primary goal of bringing advanced Acoustic Wave Therapy for ED treatment to a broader audience. The expansion plan underscores Prestige Men's Health's commitment to helping more men regain confidence and improve their quality of life through non-invasive, effective treatments. The team will conduct market research, site selection, and operational planning to ensure the seamless introduction of services in these locations.

Expanding to new markets will allow us to bring effective, non-invasive ED treatments to more men who need them.”

Dr. Joshua Schmidt, Medical Director

“Expanding to new markets will allow us to bring effective, non-invasive ED treatments to more men who need them,” said Dr. Joshua Schmidt, Medical Director at Prestige Men's Health. “Our goal is to replicate the success we've had in Utah and provide exceptional care in areas with a strong demand for our services.”

Why Houston, Tampa, and Phoenix?

The three target markets were selected based on population demand, healthcare trends, and growing awareness of men's health solutions. These cities represent high-growth metropolitan areas with a strong need for advanced ED treatments. With its proven success in treating Erectile Dysfunction using Acoustic Wave Therapy, Prestige Men's Health aims to establish a trusted presence in these new locations and continue providing exceptional, patient-centered care.
