Mr. Talian moves from his position as VP of corporate solutions at ESET, bringing 18 years of leadership experience across diverse industry verticals to his new role. With an enduring focus on delivering value to large organizations and leadership roles with utilities, large infrastructure companies, telecommunications, digitalization, banking, and now cybersecurity, Mr. Talian is well-positioned to accelerate growth in the ESET Corporate Solutions Division.

I look forward to the continued success and the fresh perspective our new C-Level manager will bring to ESET,” said Richard Marko, chief executive officer at ESET.

With large deals closing in connection with ESET NetProtect in both the EU and the Asia Pacific region, Talian’s leadership has already been recognized. These successes reflect his achievements in building and managing Solution Delivery teams, his oversight of critical sales team maturation and management processes, and his command of both the go-to-market strategy and accounts management protocols needed to succeed globally, including in North America, Latin America the Middle East and Africa.

"I am grateful for the opportunity to lead this unique team, one that I had a direct hand in building, and one which can support the wider organization in its bid to raise the prominence of ESET globally," said Talian.
