including revenue generation, hospitality management, and condo maintenance. Further, these prime accommodations will be accessible to Capital Vacations Club Owners, Marketing Guests, and Rental Guests.

“With Capital Vacations, your property will be showcased across a diverse range of proprietary rental channels to maximize income potential,” said Matt Eisenberger, Senior Vice President, Yield & Rental Management. “We ensure optimal exposure to a wider audience of travelers through the combination of our innovative technology platforms, direct booking website at www.vacationescapes.com, and tailored vacation products which are all designed to enhance the rental experience for both owners and guests.”

Camelot By The Sea, with its 231 oceanfront condos ranging from studios to three-bedroom units, remains one of the most desirable vacation destinations in Myrtle Beach. Capital Vacations’ strategic investment in the property underscores its commitment to delivering memorable vacation experiences and strengthening partnerships with condo owners, its Capital Vacation Club members and the Association.
