WEST CHESTER, PA, UNITED STATES, February 23, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Patelmo's Pizzeria, known for its deep Sicilian roots and authentic recipes, is taking its cherished family legacy to the next level by expanding into franchising. In this Q&A, CEO Thomas Amodei discusses the journey behind Patelmo's Pizzeria, the benefits of franchising, and the exciting future ahead.

Owner Tom Amodei at Patelmo's Pizzeria

What inspired you to start Patelmo's Pizzeria, and how has it grown over the years?

Thomas Amodei : "Patelmo's began as a labor of love rooted in my family's Sicilian heritage. The recipes we use today have been passed down for generations, blending time-honored techniques with the freshest ingredients. What started as a small pizzeria in Pennsylvania quickly grew because people loved the authenticity of our Sicilian-style pizza and the sense of community our restaurant brought to the neighborhood. It's been incredible to see the demand for our flavors grow beyond our local community."

Why did you decide to expand Patelmo's Pizzeria through franchising?

Thomas Amodei : "Our mission has always been about bringing people together over great food. Franchising felt like a natural next step to share the flavors of Sicily with more communities across the U.S. By offering franchise opportunities, we're inviting entrepreneurs to join our family and become ambassadors of our culinary legacy. It's not just about expanding the brand; it's about preserving and sharing something truly special."

What makes Patelmo's franchise model stand out?

Thomas Amodei : "Our model is built on three key pillars. First, authenticity—franchisees will serve recipes crafted with the same care and tradition that have defined Patelmo's from the start. Second, support—we provide comprehensive training, marketing assistance, and ongoing operational guidance to ensure every franchisee has the tools they need to succeed. Third, flexibility—we offer diverse revenue streams, including dine-in, delivery, takeout, and catering, so franchisees can adapt to their local market needs.”

How does Patelmo’s maintain its Sicilian roots while adapting to modern trends?

Thomas Amodei : “We’re very intentional about staying true to our roots. Every pizza we serve reflects the authenticity and flavor of Sicily. At the same time, we understand the importance of evolving with the industry, whether it’s through innovative menu options, technology for smoother operations, or marketing strategies to engage a modern audience. It’s all about balance—preserving tradition while embracing opportunities for growth.”

What kind of entrepreneurs are you looking for as franchise partners?

Thomas Amodei : “We’re looking for individuals who are passionate about great food and fostering community connections. This isn’t just about running a business; it’s about becoming part of a family dedicated to quality and tradition. We want partners who share our vision and are excited to carry on the Patelmo’s legacy in their own communities.”

What excites you most about Patelmo’s future?

Thomas Amodei : “What excites me most is seeing the joy our food brings to people and knowing that we can share that on a much larger scale. With our franchise program, we’re creating opportunities for others to succeed while keeping our Sicilian heritage alive. It’s incredibly rewarding to think about the impact Patelmo’s can have in communities across the country.”
