

A' Bakeware, Tableware, Drinkware and Cookware Design Award Announces Final Call for Late Entries

Distinguished international kitchenware design competition extends late submission period until February 28, 2025, offering global recognition for excellence

COMO, CO, ITALY, February 21, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The A' Bakeware, Tableware, Drinkware and Cookware Design Award, a highly prestigious international design competition dedicated to advancing innovation in kitchenware design, has announced its final call for late entries. Established in 2008, this distinguished accolade celebrates excellence in kitchenware design through a comprehensive evaluation process that recognizes outstanding achievements in bakeware, tableware, drinkware, and cookware design. The competition stands as a significant platform for showcasing exceptional design work that enhances culinary experiences and contributes to the evolution of kitchen aesthetics and functionality.

The award program has consistently highlighted remarkable innovations in kitchenware design, as demonstrated by previous laureates such as Zhiyuan Zhao, Guanhong Zhou, and Ziyang Qi for their Whale Series Antibacterial Antirust Knife Set, and Jikai Bao for the Tada Tumbler. These winning designs exemplify the competition's commitment to recognizing solutions that combine aesthetic excellence with practical functionality. The award has become instrumental in identifying designs that not only enhance daily cooking and dining experiences but also contribute to sustainable practices in kitchenware manufacturing.

Categories span across multiple domains including bakeware design, tableware innovations, drinkware solutions, and cookware development. The competition welcomes entries from individual designers, design studios, manufacturers, brands, and innovative enterprises worldwide. Submissions remain open for works created within the past decade, with the late entry period extending until February 28, 2025. Results will be announced on May 1st, 2025, following a thorough evaluation period from April 1st to April 15th, 2025.

Kitchenware and Horeca Awards 2025

The evaluation process employs a blind peer-review system, where entries are assessed based on innovative functionality, aesthetic appeal, ergonomic design, material quality, and environmental impact. A diverse jury panel comprising academics, journalists, and industry professionals ensures a comprehensive and unbiased assessment of each submission. The judging methodology emphasizes both technical excellence and practical application, considering factors such as production feasibility and market potential.

Winners receive substantial recognition through the A' Design Award Winner Logo license, trophy, and certificate. The comprehensive prize package includes international exhibition opportunities, inclusion in the prestigious yearbook, and an extensive PR campaign. Winners also gain access to the exclusive gala-night ceremony at Lake Como, Italy, where their achievements are celebrated among industry leaders and design professionals.

The A' Bakeware, Tableware, Drinkware and Cookware Design Award serves a vital role in advancing the kitchenware industry by promoting designs that enhance daily living. Through recognizing and celebrating innovative solutions, the award program aims to inspire the creation of products that combine functionality with sustainable practices, ultimately contributing to improved culinary experiences worldwide.

Kitchenware designers, manufacturers, brands, and innovation companies are invited to submit their outstanding designs for consideration in this prestigious competition.
