Holding. IGY Marinas will continue to provide expertise in operations, marketing, branding, and customer service for Porto Cervo Marina as an IGY Destination. This renewed partnership reflects IGY's unwavering commitment to advancing this iconic Mediterranean yachting destination into the future.

Porto Cervo Marina is a hallmark of excellence in yachting. Renewing this agreement underscores our commitment to preserving its legacy while enhancing its position as a world-class destination.”

Steven English, CEO of IGY Marinas

Porto Cervo Marina (PCM) is a 700-slip facility capable of accommodating yachts up to 160 meters (525 feet). As a cornerstone of IGY's global marina portfolio, it continues to set the standard for luxury yachting experiences.

“We are immensely proud of our global team and deeply grateful to Smeralda Holding for their trust that has been nurtured over the past five years,” stated Steven English, CEO of IGY Marinas. “Porto Cervo Marina is not just a stunning destination but a hallmark of excellence in yachting. Renewing this agreement underscores our commitment to preserving its legacy while enhancing its position as a world-class destination. Together with PCM, the Yacht Club Costa Smeralda and the local stakeholders, we are excited to chart the future for this globally renowned yachting hub.”

This collaborative effort seeks to continue to integrate Sardinia's rich yachting traditions with IGY's globally recognized hospitality practices, experienced by IGY's customers across 13 countries.

"Porto Cervo Marina embodies everything that makes the Costa Smeralda a dream destination for yacht owners and enthusiasts with unparalleled beauty, tradition, and a vibrant maritime culture," said Simon Bryan, IGY Marinas Vice President of Operations for Europe.

Porto Cervo Marina - an IGY Destination

Porto Cervo Marina, located along the breathtaking 55 kilometer Costa Smeralda coastline, offers amenities, including high-speed fueling, yacht provisioning, waste management, and offers exceptional shopping, beach clubs, restaurants, bars and clubs. This premier location is also in easy reach of some of the Mediterranean's most desired cruising grounds, including Corsica, the Amalfi Coast, the Italian Riviera, and the Côte d'Azur.

As IGY Marinas renews its commitment to this destination, it looks forward to ensuring Porto Cervo Marina remains a beacon of luxury yachting and an integral part of its distinguished global network.
