-- Today marks a significant milestone for patent practitioners as DeepIP unveils its groundbreaking AI Office Action Module, designed to transform the traditional, labor-intensive process of responding to USPTO office actions.

Building on the foundation of our trusted AI solutions, this module is not merely an upgrade but a complete overhaul—providing patent attorneys with a smarter, faster, and more intuitive tool to enhance their practice.

How It Works:

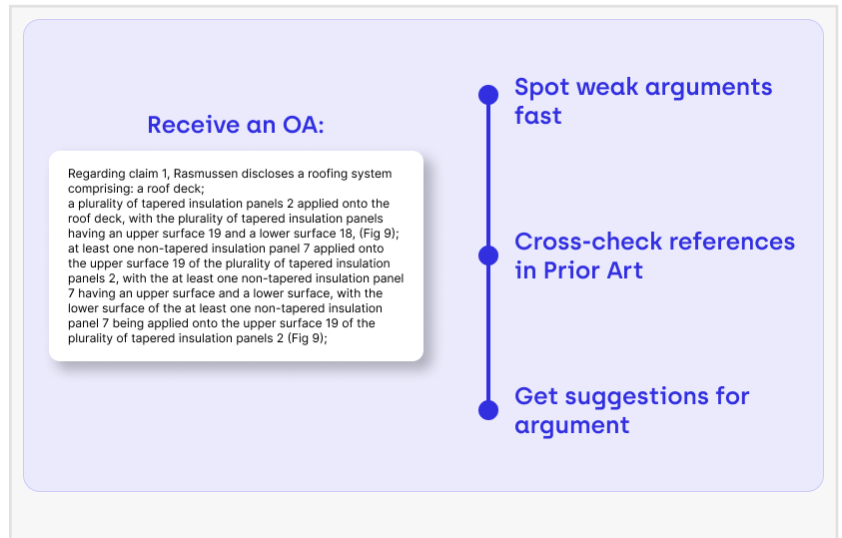

This innovative module integrates seamlessly into DeepIP's existing platform. Users can access the features directly within their workflow, enabling them to manage office actions effectively without disrupting their routine. The AI's capabilities extend beyond simple automation, providing strategic insights that help attorneys prioritize their responses and refine their arguments.

Key Benefits:

1. Intelligent Rejection Analysis: instant insight into the validity of rejections to focus your efforts effectively.
2. Efficient Reference Verification: quickly access necessary documentation without extensive manual searching.
3. Smart AI Drafting Assistance: develop compelling and compliant responses efficiently.

Client Testimonials:

Early adopters of the new Office Action Module have reported significant improvements in their workflow, with one prominent IP attorney stating, "DeepIP's new module has not only sped up our response times but also enhanced the quality of our submissions. It's like having a seasoned colleague who's always available to point out the best approach."

General Availability:

The Office Action Module is available now for all DeepIP users. Patent practitioners interested in experiencing the future of patent prosecution are invited to request a trial.
