Media, is proud to announce the launch of the Data Leaders Forum, an exclusive and dynamic space for forward-thinking leaders to come together and tackle the challenges of a rapidly evolving data and AI landscape. The forum provides a collaborative environment where data and analytics professionals can engage with industry pioneers, exchange insights, and uncover strategies to drive impactful results.

“The Data Leaders Forum is an essential community for fostering collaboration and driving innovation in data and AI,” said Fern Halper, Ph.D., TDWI’s VP of Research. “We are proud to provide a space where data leaders can share best practices, learn from one another’s successes and challenges, and collectively shape the future of this dynamic field.”

The Data Leaders Forum will host quarterly virtual events along with in-person events designed to spark meaningful conversations on the most pressing topics in data, analytics, and AI, as determined by forum members. From exploring innovative best practices to solving real-world problems, the TDWI Data Leaders Forum provides participants with the resources and connections they need to succeed. Members will also gain access to TDWI analysts and research fellows who will share the latest research on trends and developments in the field.

The Data Leaders Forum is free to qualified applicants, including CEOs, CDOs, CDAOs, CIOs, CTOs, CAIOs, GMs, business executives, and directors and VPs of IT, data, analytics, and AI.
