

NFEC Invites Chambers of Commerce to Champion FLEC Subjects: Financial Literacy, Entrepreneurship, and Career Readiness

NEW YORK CITY, NY, UNITED STATES,
March 12, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

The National Financial Educators Council (NFEC) welcomes strategic collaboration opportunities with the Chambers of Commerce to advance the adoption of FLEC Subjects – Financial Literacy, Entrepreneurship, and Career Readiness. The NFEC aims to integrate essential financial and professional skills into educational and community programs nationwide.

Building on the success of STEM coursework advocacy, the NFEC’s FLEC initiative ensures that individuals gain real-world financial and professional skills that have a direct impact on their futures. By aligning with the Chambers of Commerce, this initiative provides individuals with tools to achieve long-term financial stability, business success, and career growth.

“Our collaboration with organizations across multiple sectors strengthens our mission to make financial literacy, entrepreneurship, and career readiness a standard part of education,” said Vince Shorb, NFEC CEO. “Through collaborating with Chambers of Commerce, we aim to create a powerful movement that not only educates but also provides direct opportunities for individuals to apply these skills in their lives and careers.”

FLEC Subjects: Preparing Individuals for Financial and Professional Success

Through this initiative, NFEC and its partners aim to expand FLEC coursework and advocacy efforts in schools, workforce training programs, and community organizations, covering key topics such as:

- Financial Literacy – Budgeting, credit management, debt reduction, investing, risk

By working with organizations across various industries, we amplify our mission to integrate financial literacy, entrepreneurship, and career readiness into the education system.”

management, retirement planning, and building generational wealth.

- Entrepreneurship – Business planning, funding strategies, marketing, innovation, leadership development, and growth strategies for new and existing businesses.
- Career Readiness – Resume building, networking, personal branding, communication skills, professional etiquette, and pathways for career advancement.

A Unified Approach to Economic Empowerment

The NFEC’s FLEC Subject partnerships will drive impact through:

- Curriculum Integration – Advocating for FLEC coursework in schools, community programs, and workforce training to ensure that financial education is widely accessible.
- Business & Entrepreneurship Support – Encouraging schools to provide education to help students start and grow businesses with the support of community leaders.
- Career Development Initiatives – Preparing students for job readiness, professional growth, and leadership opportunities.

By working together, NFEC and its partners advocate for FLEC Subjects in schools and training programs – ensuring that students and professionals have financial and income-building skills for lifelong success.
