

New Free Online Platform offers Surrogacy Support with Expert-Led Guidance and Resources

Announcing a FREE educational platform for potential gestational surrogates and intended parents seeking to grow their families: SurrogacyHotline.com

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, February 25, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Comprehensive Support for Surrogacy Journeys

Understanding that many individuals face challenges with traditional IVF treatments, we have developed a secure and private platform to provide accurate, professional guidance throughout the surrogacy process. While not offering direct medical advice, our team of experienced reproductive medicine professionals offers valuable insights and connections to essential resources. Ask The Surrogacy Experts for Free 25 year boutique fertility agency owner and registered fertility nurse Nancy Block and Dr. Mark Silverberg have seen it all. With a 99% success rate at matching IP's with Surrogates, they have fielded questions for all parties, and want to help you feel confident in your choices free of charge.

Expert Network and Referral Services

Our platform provides access to a carefully curated network of professionals, including:

- Specialized attorneys in assisted reproduction law

- Qualified escrow agents
- Insurance professionals
- Experienced physicians
- ART-focused psychologists

Personalized Support Services

Our platform features:

- 24-48 hour response time to inquiries (may be longer on weekends)
- Support for both agency-assisted and independent journeys
- Secure question submission system
- Professional networking opportunities

Healthcare professionals interested in joining our referral network are encouraged to submit their credentials through our online form.

We remain committed to providing realistic guidance and comprehensive support throughout the surrogacy journey, ensuring the highest chance of success for all parties involved.

For more information about our services or to submit questions, please visit our secure online platform.
