empowering power anthem, written by Cynthia Anderson (Aquaa) and produced by Marcus "MK BEATZ" King, marks a significant milestone as Aquaa's debut release of 2025 with label partners Magnum Music and DNT Entertainment, and distributed under The Orchard, a subsidiary of Sony Music Entertainment.

"You're OK" represents a meaningful contribution to the conversation about mental health. Aquaa's commitment to advocacy through her music inspires and uplifts her audience."

DNT Entertainment

"You're OK" emerges as a beacon of hope and resilience, directly addressing mental health and self-esteem struggles. Drawing from her personal experiences with body dysmorphia and the challenges of navigating tough days, Aquaa delivers a poignant message: it's OK to not always feel OK, but it's essential to keep pushing forward and not give up. The track offers a heartfelt reminder that you are still OK, even in moments of doubt.

"No matter what life throws at you and what challenges you face, you can rise each day and keep pushing forward. In the end, everything will be OK, regardless of what others may say." - Aquaa

With a sound inspired by pop icons like Paramore, Pink, and Lady Gaga, "You're OK" blends energetic pop with a rock edge, making it a standout addition to Aquaa's discography. This release resonates particularly with the emo and alternative communities, who will find solace and solidarity in its lyrics.

An official music video accompanies the single, amplifying the song's powerful message through compelling imagery and storytelling. Fans can expect a visual experience that complements the emotional depth of the track, further cementing Aquaa's reputation as a dynamic and innovative artist.

The release of "You're OK" represents a meaningful contribution to the conversation about mental health. Aquaa's commitment to advocacy through her music inspires and uplifts her audience.
