Magazine proudly announces the release of Issue #32, a visually rich and thought-provoking edition featuring an exclusive interview with Sirish Rao, Senior Director of Public Engagement and Learning at the Vancouver Art Gallery. Rao's journey from Bangalore to the Himalayas and beyond has been shaped by adventure, risk, and a deep passion for the arts. His story is one of bold vision and fearless creativity, offering readers an inspiring look into his transformative career and the impact of his work in Vancouver's vibrant artistic sector.

"Issue #32 of Folio.YVR Luxury Lifestyle Magazine truly captures the dynamic intersection of art and design in Vancouver. From Sirish Rao's fearless vision at the Vancouver Art Gallery to the refined craftsmanship of J.D. Brandon and the unveiling of the 'Firenze' Fazioli, this issue showcases the depth of creativity shaping our city. We are proud to spotlight the artists, designers, and innovators who continue to push boundaries and redefine luxury through their work." – Helen Siwak, Editor-in-Chief & Publisher, Folio.YVR Luxury Lifestyle Magazine

The performing arts shine with the brilliance of the Vancouver Metropolitan Orchestra, led by the accomplished Maestro Ken Hsieh, and the legendary pianist Robert Silverman, whose six-decade career continues to inspire audiences worldwide. Vancouver's musical landscape was further elevated by Showcase Pianos' unveiling of the breathtaking 'Firenze' Fazioli Art Case piano, a remarkable fusion of Eastern and Western artistry, presented by Paolo Fazioli himself.

In CELEBRATE, Folio.YVR explores the world of bridal couture, where OUMA Bridal redefines elegance by weaving sustainability into each carefully crafted piece. The issue highlights how couture can seamlessly integrate environmental consciousness without compromising on beauty and sophistication. J.D. Brandon, a luxury leather label based in Victoria, BC, is known for its exquisite craftsmanship and bespoke design. The brand exemplifies timeless artistry, where meticulous attention to detail and superior materials come together to create exceptional leather goods.

For connoisseurs of fine spirits, Folio.YVR delves into the world of whisky and wine. Jamie Johnson, a renowned expert in the whisky industry, has been recognized as Scotch Whisky Brand Ambassador of the Year, a testament to her deep knowledge and influence. Martin's Lane Winery in the Okanagan Valley exemplifies precision winemaking, where gravity-driven techniques preserve the integrity of each bottle. Glendalough's Single Grain Double Barrel Irish Whiskey, now available in British Columbia, offers a unique expression of Irish tradition and modern innovation.

Luxury and design take centre stage with an exclusive look at 3823 Bayridge Avenue, a stunning West Vancouver residence designed by celebrated architect Randy Bens. Automotive enthusiasts will appreciate the latest from Rolls-Royce with the Black Badge Spectre in Vapor Violet, while the Range Rover Evoque introduces sustainable luxury with its innovative textile interior.

For those with a passion for cigars, Folio.YVR highlights Gregory Pinch, co-owner of 2000 Cigars, whose expertise as a certified Habanos Sommelier brings unparalleled knowledge to Vancouver's cigar connoisseurs. The issue also showcases the innovative artistry of LYLE XOX, whose upcoming exhibitions at Gallery Jones and the Outsider Art Fair in Manhattan push creative boundaries in mixed media expression.

Folio.YVR Luxury Lifestyle Magazine continues to present the finest in art, design, and culture, offering readers an inspiring perspective on the West Coast luxury lifestyle. Issue #32 is now available digitally and free download through the FolioYVR.com website.
