

Orthopedic Surgeon Dr. Eric J. Mancini Joins Hospital for Special Surgery at NCH in Naples, FL

Hospital for Special Surgery (HSS) at Naples Comprehensive Health (NCH) announces Eric J. Mancini, MD, a fellowship-trained & board-certified orthopedic surgeon

NAPLES, FL, UNITED STATES, February 25, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hospital for Special Surgery (HSS) at Naples Comprehensive Health (NCH) is pleased to announce that Eric J. Mancini, MD, a fellowship-trained and board-certified orthopedic surgeon, will be joining HSS at NCH. Dr. Mancini brings a wealth of experience from his practice in Petoskey, Michigan, where he has developed a dedicated patient base, many of whom reside in Naples during the winter months.

Dr. Mancini earned his medical degree from Wayne State University School of Medicine in 2011. He completed his orthopedic surgery residency at Detroit Medical Center/Wayne State University and continued with a sports medicine fellowship at the Cedars-Sinai Kerlan Jobe Orthopaedic Institute, in Los Angeles, where he gained extensive experience in various orthopedic procedures.

Specializing in sports medicine, Dr. Mancini focuses on helping athletes recover from injuries and return to peak performance. He has a particular interest in treating rotator cuff injuries and shoulder arthritis and has extensive experience in complex shoulder reconstructions as well as hip arthroscopy.

Dr. Mancini's arrival to Naples ensures that his loyal patients from Michigan can continue to receive the exceptional orthopedic care they trust. His practice will offer state-of-the-art treatments and provide patients with access to cutting-edge musculoskeletal care.

"We are thrilled to welcome Dr. Mancini to our team," said Justin Blohm, Vice President of HSS at NCH. "His dedication to patient care and his specialized expertise will be invaluable to our community."

Dr. Mancini will begin seeing patients in Naples in April 2025, offering personalized orthopedic care tailored to the needs of both seasonal and year-round residents.
