Since its release, "Breathe" has been gaining traction on YouTube and streaming platforms, with organic listener engagement steadily increasing. The song has particularly resonated with parents and country music fans who appreciate honest, heartfelt songwriting.

This song means everything to me. It's about life's most important moments, the ones that make you stop and truly appreciate everything around you.”

The track's growing popularity has fueled further interest in Rifley's music, as his studio craftsmanship and self-produced artistry continue to attract attention. As an independent artist, he remains hands-on with every aspect of his career, from writing and producing to engineering his own recordings at Midnight Sound Studio, the studio he co-owns in Anchorage.

"Breathe" is available now on all major streaming platforms.
