

The Maple Staple Showcases Margaret Liu Collins' Award-Winning Book at the London Book Fair 2025

"God is Good: Revised Second Edition" gains a bigger platform to present its message of faith, perseverance, and divine grace.

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, February 26, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ""God is Good: Revised Second Edition"", the inspiring memoir by Margaret Liu Collins, will be among the titles exhibited by The Maple Staple at the prestigious London Book Fair 2025. To be featured at the bookstore's booth at Stand 6G40 on March 11 to 13 at Olympia London, this compelling book shares Collins' deeply personal journey, illustrating how trust in God's goodness can lead to a life of abundance, healing, and renewal.

God is Good: Revised Second Edition

Recipient of a Gold Medal in the Christian - General category at the 2024 Readers' Favorite Book Awards, "God is Good" has resonated with readers seeking inspiration and hope as it explores the misconceptions about God's nature, emphasizing His love, kindness, and desire for His children to live in joy, health, and prosperity. Through deeply personal experiences, Collins shares how unwavering faith led her to overcome hardship and embrace a life filled with spiritual and material abundance.

The book's impact extends beyond the page, as "God is Good" has also been adapted into a film. Supported by Bookside Press, the adaptation brings Collins' story to a wider audience, capturing the themes of grace, perseverance, and divine intervention in a cinematic experience that is both personal and universal.

Margaret Liu Collins, an entrepreneur, philanthropist, and dedicated advocate for spiritual growth, has spent her life sharing the message of God's unwavering love. Her journey—from overcoming cultural and personal hardships to becoming a leader in business and faith-based initiatives—reflects the core message of “God is Good”. Through her work, she continues to inspire others to embrace faith as a guiding force in every aspect of life.

Returning for its second year at LBF, The Maple Staple will exhibit “God is Good: Revised Second Edition” alongside a curated selection of independent titles.
