IT-Conductor ChAI™ (Change Automation Intelligence) Now Available on the AWS Marketplace to orchestrate change management for Applications and IT Operations

CUPERTINO, CA, UNITED STATES, February 27, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- IT-Conductor, a cloud-based IT operations and automation solutions provider, announces that its Change Automation Intelligence \(ChAI\) solution is now available on AWS Marketplace, in addition to SAP Store. This milestone makes it easier for SAP customers to access and deploy IT-Conductor ChAI, streamlining SAP change management and transport automation directly within their AWS environments.

IT-Conductor ChAI automates SAP transport management, approvals, and tracking, reducing manual effort and errors while improving compliance and efficiency. Now, AWS customers can seamlessly integrate ChAI into their cloud-based and on-premises SAP landscapes, benefiting from enhanced scalability, security, and automation on AWS.

The screenshot shows a navigation menu with 'Management', 'My Objects', 'Dashboards', and 'Support'. Below it, the breadcrumb path is 'IT-Conductor ChAI > Service Desk > Application Support'. Three service tiles are displayed: 'BASIS Support' (SAP Application Administration), 'Automation Support' (Application Automation Support), and 'SAP Change Management' (SAP Transport Management).

“IT-Conductor ChAI™ for SAP orchestrates the end-to-end workflow of implementing changes in SAP with efficiency and intelligence giving customers full compliance and control of SAP transports 24x7"

— Linh Nguyen, CEO and co-founder of IT-Conductor

IT-Conductor has been a long-time platform partner with AWS. It was the first AWS SaaS Marketplace solution for SAP Monitoring and Automation available since 2017. In addition to the availability of the AWS Marketplace, in 2023, IT-Conductor achieved Amazon Web Services \(AWS\) Migration and Modernization Competency status.

This designation recognizes IT-Conductor's expertise in helping SAP customers modernize their environments and streamline migrations to AWS. With IT-Conductor ChAI and AWS's cloud capabilities, organizations can accelerate digital transformation while ensuring seamless SAP change management.

Key Benefits of IT-Conductor ChAI on AWS Marketplace:

IT-Conductor ChAI™ for SAP orchestrates the end-to-end workflow of implementing changes in SAP with efficiency and intelligence giving customers full compliance and control of SAP transports 24x7"

Linh Nguyen, CEO and co-founder of IT-Conductor
