In the podcast episode, Jan talks about his successful background in InfoTech and Financial Services and then his initial struggles and failures as he entered the energy industry. Despite facing setbacks and challenges, he never gave up on his dreams. With determination and perseverance, he shifted his focus and returned to the insurance and investment sector where he had been a success in the late 1980's. Jan then joined one of the leading firms in the industry. His hard work and dedication paid off and he was named the Rookie of the Year, a prestigious title given to the top-performing new agent in the Charlotte, NC office.
