

Barbara Lane, Author of "Broken Water," Triumphs as Winner of the 2025 Inspiring Women Award for Exceptional Leadership

"The annual award recognizes the best in female leadership at a time when the focus on women's contributions is more critical than ever." - Aurora DeRose

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, March 6, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Amidst a sea of outstanding nominees, Rev. Barbara Lane, MA, OMC, bestselling author of Broken Water: An Extraordinary True Story and trauma-healing advocate, has emerged victorious for the 2025 Inspiring Women Award. This prestigious recognition celebrates her remarkable prowess in leadership and innovation, highlighting the zenith of female leadership during a time when their influence holds unprecedented significance in society.

Rev. Lane was a mentee of the late David Grove, renowned for his pioneering work in Clean Metaphor, Questions, and Language. She uses her journey to destigmatize the realities faced by child abuse survivors in her book, Broken Water. With over 25 years as a ministerial counselor, Rev. Lane draws on her human development and family psychology background, focusing on child abuse and related issues. She emphasizes healing from trauma and the transformative power of faith.

Co-creator of the award, Aurora DeRose, emphasizes its importance by stating, "The annual award recognizes the best in female leadership at a time when it is more important than ever." This sentiment resonates deeply in an era where women's voices shape discussions across various industries.

Open to exemplary women from all corners of the United States, the Inspiring Women Award stands as a testament to women's power and determination in reshaping industries,
