Lees Trees has over 30 years of experience and is equipped to safely remove damaged trees during an emergency. Emergency tree removal requires a fast, 24/7 response, assessment of tree damage, safe tree removal techniques, as well as debris clean up. Lees Trees has the knowledge and ability to complete tree removal with excellent, prompt customer service.

Outside of storms, tree owners should call for emergency services to remove a tree when it has exposed roots, is leaning, or has large cavities in the trunk. These issues are signs of sick trees that could give way and topple, or infect other trees in the vicinity.

Anyone worried about the safety of a tree should contact Lees Trees via their website, or call (512) 858-4018.
