

Divorce With Respect Week® is March 3rd Through 9th in Clayton, Missouri

Divorce With Respect Week® is an opportunity for couples considering divorce to learn more about the divorce process.

CLAYTON , MO, UNITED STATES, March 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- March 3rd through 9th has been proclaimed as Divorce With Respect Week® in the city of Clayton. Divorce With Respect Week® is an opportunity for couples considering divorce to learn more about the divorce process and how to go through the process by staying out of court.

The proclamation, signed by Mayor of Clayton Michelle Harris stated that choosing an out of court process for divorce is widely understood to be a better process for the children of a divorcing couple because it allows the two parties to be better co-parents after the divorce.

"We are deeply grateful to the city of Clayton for recognizing the importance of Divorce With Respect Week®," said Kristen Sparks, president of St. Louis Collaborative Family Law Association "This week serves as an incredible opportunity to explore alternatives to the traditional, adversarial divorce

This will be the 4th annual Divorce With Respect Week®

process. By focusing on respectful and collaborative solutions we can help couples to work through challenging times.”

During Divorce With Respect Week® divorce professionals in Clayton and the St. Louis area are offering free virtual consultations for anyone interested in learning more about divorce options that are available to them. This is the 4th annual Divorce With Respect Week® which is a national effort to inform more people about the benefits of the Collaborative Divorce process.
