Award-winning submission, "Receive One Facial, Give One Facial." In collaboration with the Ricardo Fisas Foundation and Natura Bissé, Trellis Spa guests who purchased a facial were able to give a complimentary facial to someone undergoing oncology treatment. The recipients had the unique opportunity to indulge in a personalized facial from an oncology-trained aesthetician inside a Pure Air Bubble where they could breathe 99.99% pure air to help eliminate toxins and dead cells, which aids in beautiful-looking skin.

"We are thrilled to honor the recipients of the ISPA

spas and exceptional products developed by our resource partners that are shaping the future of the spa industry, setting new standards in innovation and excellence, and providing our members with transformative initiatives and tools to exceed."

As the largest luxury spa in Texas, Trellis Spa at The Houstonian offers an unparalleled retreat for relaxation and rejuvenation. Nestled within the resort's lush 27-acre grounds, this stunning 26,500-square-foot sanctuary evokes the elegance of a European villa. Guests can indulge in a full-service menu of facials and massage treatments while immersing themselves in world-class amenities, including the serene Soaking Pools and Garden, private cabanas, an indoor reflection pool, a steam room, a hot tub, and multiple inviting lounge areas.

"The 'Receive One Facial, Give One Facial' event was so special. We wanted to provide a moment of well-being, relaxation, and care to those navigating the challenges of oncology treatment," said Kellee Martin, Spa Director at Trellis Spa. "It was our way of giving back and supporting our community during their journey towards wellness, and we are thrilled that it is being recognized within the spa industry."
