

Energy and Commodities Consulting Firm capSpire Poised for Transformative 2025

capSpire building on achievements and milestones, solidifying its reputation as a trusted partner for companies trading in energy and commodities.

TULSA, OK, UNITED STATES, March 4, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- capSpire, a leading technology consulting firm for energy and commodity organizations, is accelerating its expansion and strengthening its market position following a year of strategic growth and investment.

Throughout 2024, capSpire achieved significant milestones across its three business pillars –

2024 was a pivotal year for capSpire leading to transformative results for our clients. Looking ahead, we're focused on delivering even greater value to the energy and commodities sector."

Jim Kiser, CEO of capSpire

Advisory, Delivery, and Operations & Support—solidifying its reputation as a trusted partner for companies trading in energy and commodities, as they navigate an evolving landscape.

Achievements made during 2024:

 Robust revenue growth, fueled by an influx of new client engagements and deeper partnerships with existing customers.

 Strategic talent investment, with the addition of industry-leading, seasoned expert consultants to accelerate project execution and deliver measurable client

ROI.

□ Strengthened expertise in CTRM/ETRM systems, reinforcing capSpire's leadership in operational support solutions.

□ Global expansion in Singapore and other emerging geographies, for crude oil, refined products, and LNG companies as they scale operations across the Asia-Pacific region.

Growth in North America, with expanded operations in Calgary to support Canada's dynamic energy and commodities market.

Enhanced regional presence, with newly designed office spaces in key hubs Dallas, U.S., and Gurgaon, India, to better serve a growing client base.

capSpire attributes its sustained momentum and exceptional growth to its tailored client-centric approach, innovative service offerings, relentless focus on talent acquisition, and the strategic investment made by Falfurrias Growth Partners in 2024. This partnership has enabled capSpire to scale operations, enhance service capabilities and continue driving industry-leading solutions for clients globally.

"2024 was a pivotal year for capSpire. Our team's expertise and dedication have driven transformative results for our clients," said Jim Kiser, CEO of capSpire. "Looking ahead to 2025, we remain focused on expanding our capabilities and delivering even greater value to the energy and commodities sector."

"capSpire's performance since our investment has been exceptional—a testament to both strong leadership and clear, strategic vision. We are energized by what's ahead and look forward to supporting our partnership to unlock continued success," says Amy Brandt, Partner, Falfurrias Growth Partners.

Operating across the commodities spectrum—including crude & refined products, gas, power & renewables, agriculture & CPG, metals and mining, capSpire helps clients navigate complex market dynamics and regional trading, risk management and operations challenges with confidence. With its commitment to excellence and innovation, capSpire is well positioned to shape the future of professional services in the energy and commodities sector, helping clients drive sustainable growth.
