Hands down, this is a great book. A modern take on an old classic. Not what you expect, and it leaves you on a cliffhanger that makes you want to read the second one as soon as you put it down!"

Amazon Review

"The Coming" takes readers on a suspenseful journey where faith and fear collide. On a stormy night, Joe stumbles upon a horrifying accident involving high school twins, Mareilene and Dareilene—both pregnant. As flames engulf the wreckage, Mareilene makes a desperate plea: to let her sister and her unborn child's death remain a secret, for their survival depends on deception. With a shocking twist of fate and an ominous warning—"Drive like the Devil is on your heels, Joe, because He is!"—this gripping novel explores the battle of good versus evil in a high-stakes fight for survival.

A. Ben Bacon's narrative skillfully combines action, suspense, and religion to present a contemporary interpretation of supernatural combat. A recent Amazon reviewer praises the book, stating, "Hands down, this is a great book. A modern take on an old classic. Not what you expect, and it leaves you on a cliffhanger that makes you want to read the second one as soon as you put it down!"
