AI-driven business transformation, announces the launch of Agentic AI, a groundbreaking AI service designed to revolutionise how businesses harness artificial intelligence. With over 25 years of expertise in disruptive technology, Matrix AI Consulting is bringing its deep knowledge of AI, automation, and digital transformation to enterprises worldwide.

Agentic AI enables businesses to deploy intelligent, autonomous AI agents that can operate independently, learn in real time, and enhance decision-making. These AI-powered agents seamlessly integrate into existing business systems, optimising operations, improving efficiency, and unlocking new growth opportunities.

"We are at the forefront of AI-driven business innovation. Agentic AI isn't just about automation—it's about creating intelligent, self-sufficient systems that learn, adapt, and enhance business outcomes at an unprecedented scale," said Glen Maguire, Founder at Matrix AI Consulting. "Businesses that embrace AI now will be positioned to lead in their industries rather than play catch-up. With AI, you essentially need to lean into it or die."

A Revolutionary AI Service Built on Expertise and Global Success

Matrix AI Consulting has a proven track record of delivering cutting-edge AI solutions to international clients across diverse industries, including finance, healthcare, tourism, manufacturing, and professional services.
