

Bed Wood and Parts Announces RetroLiner Real Wood Bed Liner Kit for 1973-1991 "Squarebody" Ford Bronco / GMC Jimmy

Bed Wood and Parts announces the release of its new RetroLiner® for the 1973-1991 Chevrolet/GMC Squarebody Ford Bronco/GMC Jimmy.

HOPKINSVILLE, KY, UNITED STATES, March 1, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

The RetroLiner® is an industry exclusive, application- specific, real wood bed liner system designed for pickup trucks and SUV's with a factory metal bed floor. It offers classic styling in a variety of natural wood tones/colors to personalize the largest flat surface on your pickup/SUV. Includes all components packaged in a single box. Ready to install.

Each RETROLINER® kit includes the following components, features, and benefits:

- Laser measured, 3-D Modeled and digitally designed to ensure precise fitment.
- CNC milled to match the contours of the truck bed.
- State- of- the- art mounting system allows the RETROLINER® to "float" just above the stock metal bed floor, allowing rain or wash water to drain appropriately.
- Pre-sealed with your choice of HydroSatin™ or HydroShine™ proprietary, waterborne exterior wood impregnated sealer and finish.
- Available in a wide variety of domestic and exotic hardwoods to accent any paint or interior color.
- No drilling is required so you won't threaten your body warranty.
- Simple installation requires nothing more than an Allen wrench.
- Kit includes all wood components, mounting frame, mounting pads, a complete set of pre-cut, pre-punched polished stainless steel bed strips, and a complete polished stainless steel hardware kit. Items are, neatly packaged in a single box and ready to install.
- Can be easily removed and reinstalled to accommodate various hauling situations.
