ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES, March 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Atlanta Community Food Bank invites the community to participate in its 41st annual Hunger Walk Run on March 9. With the Food Bank seeing the highest need for food assistance since the pandemic, this year's event is critical for raising awareness and funds to combat hunger in metro Atlanta and North Georgia. Participants can join either in person from noon to 4 p.m. at The Home Depot Backyard or virtually.

"In these challenging times, our annual Hunger Walk Run unites the community to make an impact in the fight against hunger across Atlanta and beyond. Food insecurity is all around us, and the need is greater than ever," said Kyle Waide, President & CEO of the Atlanta Community Food Bank. "Every person who participates helps provide nutritious food and vital resources to children, families, seniors, and others in need. This is not just about one day. It's about inspiring an ongoing commitment to take action and end hunger in our community."

Each registered walker helps provide 90 meals, while each runner helps provide 120 meals for our neighbors who are struggling. With 1 in 5 children in Georgia facing food insecurity, every registration makes a significant impact. In its 40 years, Hunger Walk Run has raised more than $15.5 million for hunger relief - enough to help provide more than 46 million meals!
