NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, March 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

According to a new study published by Knowledge Sourcing Intelligence, the eucalyptus oil market is projected to grow at a CAGR of 4.69% between 2025 and 2030 to reach US$1,650.500 million by 2030.

The global market for eucalyptus oil is experiencing a significant growth trend as consumers increasingly seek out natural and sustainable products.

Eucalyptus oil, derived from the leaves of the eucalyptus tree, has been used for centuries for its medicinal properties. It is known for its anti-inflammatory, antiseptic, and decongestant properties, making it a popular ingredient in a variety of products such as cosmetics, pharmaceuticals, and aromatherapy oils. With the growing awareness of the harmful effects of synthetic chemicals, consumers are turning towards natural alternatives, driving the demand for eucalyptus oil.

The rise in popularity of eucalyptus oil can also be attributed to its versatility. It is used in a wide range of products, from skincare and haircare to household cleaners and insect repellents. Its refreshing and invigorating scent also makes it a popular choice for aromatherapy, further boosting its demand. Additionally, the increasing use of eucalyptus oil in the food and beverage industry, particularly in the production of cough drops and throat lozenges, is expected to contribute to the market growth.

Key players such as doTERRA International, Young Living Essential Oils, NOW Foods, and Plant Therapy dominate the eucalyptus oil market. These companies constantly innovate and introduce new products to cater to the growing demand for eucalyptus oil. With the rising trend of natural and sustainable living, the eucalyptus oil market is expected to continue its upward trajectory in the coming years.
