Created and directed by Dr. Vicki Wright Hamilton, who also serves as Executive Producer, Diary of Successful Black Single Mothers sheds light on the resilience, sacrifice, and triumph of Black single mothers who have navigated life's challenges to build successful futures for their families.

This project is more than a collection of stories—it's a movement. These women have opened their hearts and shared their journeys so that others can find strength and solidarity in their experiences.”

Dr. Vicki Wright Hamilton

Through raw and emotional storytelling, the documentary highlights the strength of women who have fought against societal barriers, financial hardships, and personal struggles—emerging not just as survivors, but as role models and leaders within their communities.

A Film Rooted in Leadership, Transformation, and Growth For Dr. Vicki Wright Hamilton, this project is more than just a film—it's a mission to amplify voices that too often go unheard. Through her work as a leadership strategist, executive coach, and technology disruptor, she empowers individuals and businesses to embrace transformation and resilience—principles deeply embedded in this documentary.

"This project is my way of giving back," said Dr. Vicki Wright Hamilton. "As a leader, I help people step into their power, navigate change, and build lasting success. The women in this documentary embody those same values, proving that no matter the obstacles, growth is always possible. Their stories deserve to be told, their sacrifices acknowledged, and their victories celebrated."

Dr. Wright Hamilton is known for her three core pillars of impact:

- Digital Disruptor – Leading transformation in technology and change management
- Unstoppable You – Empowering individuals to break through barriers and reach their full potential
- The CEO Blueprint – Guiding business leaders to scale effectively and sustain long-term success

Through this documentary, she brings these pillars to life, showcasing the determination, adaptability, and leadership of single mothers who have transformed their lives against the odds.

A Movement Beyond the Film – The Accompanying Anthology

Expanding the reach of the documentary, Diary of Successful Black Single Mothers is also available as an anthology book, featuring deeply personal stories from the women in the film. Each woman contributed her own chapter, sharing her experiences of navigating financial hardship, societal judgment, and personal loss—while emerging stronger, wiser, and victorious.

The book offers readers:

- A raw and honest portrayal of single motherhood beyond the stereotypes
- Strategies for overcoming emotional, financial, and systemic challenges
- The importance of self-care, healing, and personal growth
- Real-life success stories that inspire hope, courage, and action
