TG Wireless's inventory now includes the most sought-after flagship devices from Apple and Samsung. Apple enthusiasts can access the complete iPhone lineup, including the revolutionary iPhone 16 Pro Max, sophisticated iPhone 15 series, reliable iPhone 14 models, and the powerful iPhone 13 collection. Visit our Apple wholesale section to explore our full range of iPhones.

For Samsung loyalists, TG Wireless offers the innovative Galaxy S25, feature-packed S24, and the acclaimed S23 series. The company has also expanded its mid-range offerings with Samsung's popular A-series, including the A15 and A14 models, providing quality options at competitive wholesale prices.

Trusted Legacy Models

Recognizing the sustained demand for previous generation smartphones, TG Wireless maintains a robust inventory of legacy devices. Apple offerings include the compact iPhone SE, versatile iPhone 12, reliable iPhone 11, and the groundbreaking iPhone XR.

Samsung's legacy lineup features the Galaxy S20, S10, and S9 series, alongside the productivity-focused Note 20 and Note 9 devices. These models continue to deliver excellent performance and value for price-conscious consumers. Browse our complete wholesale catalog to find the perfect mix of devices for your business needs.

Complete Wholesale Solution

"Our expanded inventory represents our commitment to serving diverse market needs," said Sam Hickson of TG Wireless. "Whether our clients are looking for the latest technology or reliable devices at more accessible price points, we provide the variety and quality they need to succeed in today's competitive mobile marketplace."

TG Wireless maintains rigorous quality standards for all devices, ensuring each smartphone meets strict performance benchmarks before reaching wholesale partners. The company's strategic relationships with manufacturers and suppliers enable them to offer competitive pricing while maintaining product excellence.
