

ROBERT N. ECKERT UNVEILS INTRIGUE AT THE LONDON BOOK FAIR 2025 WITH "THE YEAR OF FIVE EMPERORS: PART 1: PERTINAX"

A riveting tale of power, betrayal, and ambition, "The Year of Five Emperors: Part 1: Pertinax" immerses readers in Ancient Rome

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, March 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Emperor Commodus's brutal reign has ended, yet the battle for power is only starting. Robert N. Eckert brings to life the tumultuous times of Roman history in "The Year of Five Emperors: Part 1: Pertinax," which will take center stage at The London Book Fair 2025.

The empire faces a crisis, igniting intense rivalry over the question of succession. The Senate chooses the capable but ill-fated Pertinax, as the Praetorian Guard covets the riches of Didius Julianus. Clodius Albinus asserts his legitimacy through lineage, Septimius Severus commands the legions, and Pescennius Niger captures the hearts of the Roman people. Rival gods actively compete for the hearts and minds of the citizens, intensifying the fractures in an already divided Rome.

In the midst of political upheaval, the book tracks the household of Tullius Secundus, a senator from the old guard, as they navigate treacherous times, seeking stability,
