Adelpha L. DeGuzman

Adelpha L. DeGuzman, a retired forensic accountant, brings her long-held literary aspirations to life with 'Axel: The Mysterious Tapestry.' After balancing a successful career and family life, Adelpha rediscovered her passion for storytelling and embarked on a decade-long journey to write her debut novel. Her story follows Axel, a fourteen-year-old boy gifted a magical tapestry that transports him to a distant kingdom on the brink of destruction. Here, Axel must collect twelve celestial gems, each guarded by a different tribe, to save the kingdom from a dark, looming threat.

As 'Axel: The Mysterious Tapestry' unfolds, Axel faces perilous challenges and confronts his own destiny as the Chosen One. The story is a thrilling escape into a world of wonder, creating together mystery, courage, and resilience. Adelpha's writing invites audiences to join Axel's adventure and experience the excitement of a young hero overcoming impossible odds.
