

International SOS and Vialto Partners announce alliance to enhance global mobility, health, and security services

International SOS partners with Vialto Partners to provide integrated solutions for global mobility, ensuring support for employees and organizations worldwide.

KUALA LUMPUR, MALAYSIA, March 7, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- International SOS, the world's leading provider of health, wellness, medical, and security assistance services, is proud to announce an alliance with Vialto Partners, a premier provider of global mobility, tax, and immigration solutions to the world's leading companies. This collaboration provides integrated solutions that address the increasingly complex needs of globally mobile employees and their organisations.

This alliance will help us deliver real value to our clients, helping to ensure the safety, wellbeing, and compliance of their mobile employees."

"International SOS provides powerful travel tracking technology and expertise in medical and security assistance and many of our clients are already using the integration with myTrips, Vialto's award-winning business travel compliance solution," said Sarah Mullen, Partner and Global Lead for Business Travel Services at Vialto Partners. "Combined with Vialto's deep knowledge and experience in tax, immigration, and global mobility strategy, this alliance will help us deliver real value to our clients, helping to ensure the safety, wellbeing, and compliance of their mobile employees."

Sally Wang, Group VP, Global Alliances & Partnership, International SOS, comments, "Businesses face an increasingly fragmented world and the demands on keeping the mobile workforce safe have never been more pressing. This partnership will enable businesses to strengthen their Duty of Care commitments with a unified solution that addresses both the health and security needs of their workforce and the legal and regulatory complexities of international mobility."

Through this partnership, Vialto Partners and International SOS will provide a seamless service encompassing:

□ Comprehensive Health and Security Support: International SOS' 24/7 medical, security, and emergency services ensure that globally mobile employees have access to expert care wherever they are in the world. From preventive health programmes to crisis management, the service offerings ensure peace of mind for both employees and employers.

□ Business Travel Compliance: Combining the strength of Vialto's global mobility expertise and its award winning technology, myTrips, will help companies effectively assess and manage immigration, tax, social security, posted worker, and other risks associated with business travel.

□ Seamless Integration of Technology and Expertise: The partnership will leverage advanced technology to provide real-time insights, reporting, and compliance tracking, allowing companies to streamline their mobility programmes while maintaining a high standard of Duty of Care for their employees.
