"We deeply grieve the loss of a patriotic freedom fighter who exemplified the American Dream, Lincoln Diaz-Balart. In his two decades of public service to the state of Florida and to our nation, he championed and uplifted the voices of his constituents and defended human rights across the globe. An immigrant from Cuba, Diaz-Balart made his way to the halls of Congress and made the American Dream a reality for himself and his family. He valiantly fought for the cause of freedom and democracy, defended the oppressed, and advocated for the interests of the Hispanic-American community in south Florida. He quickly became a symbol of strength for Cuban-Americans. His illustrious career and tireless commitment to his constituents should serve as an inspiration to anyone aspiring to be a public servant. His life, service, and incredible impact will never be forgotten and will be deeply missed."
