SAN FRANCISCO, CA, UNITED STATES, March 5, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- IndyKite proudly announced today that Rockwell Automation, a global leader in industrial automation, has selected IndyKite's platform to support its digital transformation initiatives. This collaboration marks a significant milestone as Rockwell Automation embarks on enhancing its data management and security practices, particularly focusing on securing and streamlining their enterprise application ecosystem.

IndyKite's platform will play a pivotal role in supporting Rockwell Automation's efforts to integrate critical access services, enhancing data integrity and security while facilitating more efficient, dynamic management across its enterprise systems

Leading the way in automation and digital transformation

Lasse Andresen, CEO of IndyKite, welcomed Rockwell Automation, highlighting their leadership in innovation.

"Rockwell Automation is a recognized leader in driving digital transformation across industries, and we are excited to support their vision with our platform," said Lasse Andresen, CEO of IndyKite.

"Our solution will enable Rockwell to secure, manage, and integrate their data more efficiently, ensuring a more agile, scalable, and secure environment to support their ongoing innovation."

"Rockwell Automation is a driving force in modernizing industrial automation. They are leading the charge in digital transformation, and we are excited to support their vision for the future," he said.

Enhancing scalability, flexibility and security

"We are excited to utilize IndyKite as we continue our digital transformation journey," said Ryan Carpenter, Vice President, Commercial Programs & Operations at Rockwell Automation.

“IndyKite’s platform offers the scalability, flexibility, and security needed to optimize our data management across our enterprise systems.

Through this strategic partnership, Rockwell Automation is poised to continue its leadership in industrial automation and digital transformation, strengthening its ability to make secure, intelligent decisions and improve the overall customer experience.”
