

Amped Electric Expands Footprint with LEED Acquisition

CHARLOTTE, NC, UNITED STATES, March 5, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Amped Electric, a leading provider of electrical contracting services in the Southeast, proudly announces its successful acquisition of LEED Electric, a respected electrical contractor serving the Charlotte market for over 20 years. This strategic expansion marks Amped Electric's formal entry into the North Carolina market, enhancing its ability to meet the growing customer demand with a local presence.

Founded on an excellent reputation, LEED Electric has been a trusted name in commercial and industrial electrical contracting, known for its commitment to superior craftsmanship, reliability, and innovation. By joining forces with Amped Electric, LEED Electric will leverage Amped's resources and expertise to continue delivering exceptional service while expanding its capabilities.

"We are thrilled to welcome LEED Electric into the Amped Electric family," said Michael Jannace, President of Amped Electric. "This acquisition aligns with our targeted service and geographic growth plans. Together, we will continue to provide top-tier electrical solutions to our clients while expanding our reach in North Carolina."

LEED Electric's President John Gilmer, who will continue with the business, echoed the enthusiasm: "Joining forces with Amped Electric presents an exciting opportunity to build upon our legacy and drive even greater innovation in the electrical contracting space. Our customers will benefit from Amped's solid infrastructure and commitment to excellence."

Amped Electric is a proud portfolio company of Evolution Strategy Partners, which played a prominent role in acquiring LEED Electric.

"This acquisition is a testament to Amped Electric's commitment to strategic growth and delivering best-in-class services," said Stenning Schueppert, Managing Partner of Evolution Strategy Partners. "Bringing LEED Electric under the Amped umbrella strengthens their presence in a key target market and positions them for continued success."

With this expansion, Amped Electric is well-positioned to serve North Carolina's growing electrical contracting needs while maintaining the high standards to which both companies are known.
