Groundbreaking new online service simplifies the process of syncing video depositions, saving thousands of dollars each year for you or your client's money.

ROME, GA, UNITED STATES, March 5, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Synchronized video depositions have been used for decades in the courtroom. Synchronized depositions give the attorney a means to quickly impeach a witness by jumping to page/line designations instantly. Also, synchronized video depositions make editing and re-editing for playback a breeze. "We are excited to offer

SyncExpress.net to our valued clients and of course the entire legal community at large", said Robert K. Finnell, Esq., CEO of ExhibitView Solutions, LLC. "We understand the time and cost constraints that attorneys face and we believe that SyncExpress.net will greatly improve their workflow and efficiency. Our goal is to provide better tools and services for legal professionals and SyncExpress.net is a testament to that commitment."

I would rate SyncExpress a 5, on a scale of 1 to 5, 5 being the best. It is so easy to use, and I have been very impressed with how quickly I am receiving my synced video files.”
