

Retired Buccaneer Alex Smith To Host Flag Football Clinic To Bring Awareness To Safe Sports Alternatives for Youth

Mini Flag Football Clinic for youth athletes ages 6 to 14 at
DICK'S House of Sport

TAMPA, FL, UNITED STATES, March 5, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Tampa, FL – March 4, 2025 – Former Tampa Bay Buccaneers player and current Commissioner for Land O' Lakes Under The Lights Flag Football, Alex Smith, is set to host an exciting Mini Flag Football Clinic for youth athletes in grades K-8 at DICK'S House of Sport. This special event is designed to introduce children to the fundamentals of flag football in a safe, fun, and engaging environment, led by an experienced NFL veteran and other retired players.

Over 100,000 kids get injured every year in contact sports. We're excited to create an atmosphere where young athletes can learn, grow, and have fun safely."

Event Details:

Date: March 15th, 2025 | 11:00am to 3:00pm

Location: DICK'S House of Sport | 2223 N Westshore Blvd, Tampa, FL 33607

Who: Boys and Girls - Age 6 to 14

What: Mini Flag Football Clinic led by Alex Smith & special guest athletes

Focus: Flag football fundamentals, skill development, and teamwork

With a hands-on coaching approach, Alex Smith and his team will guide participants through essential skills such as throwing, catching, flag-pulling techniques, footwork, agility, and game strategy. This clinic aims to provide a solid foundation for young players while emphasizing sportsmanship, teamwork, and confidence-building.

"Flag football is a fantastic way for kids to stay active, learn important skills, and develop a love for the game in a non-contact setting," said Alex Smith. Over 100,000 kids get injured every year in contact sports. We're excited to create an atmosphere where young athletes can learn, grow, and have fun safely."
