

Whitney's Cookies from 'MasterChef' Winner Whitney Miller Making Cookies Great Again with Real Ingredients

The popular gourmet cookie company uses all real ingredients, no artificial dyes and no artificial flavors.

NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, March 6, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Whitney's Cookies, the popular gourmet cookie company founded by MasterChef winner Whitney Miller, is making cookies great again with real ingredients. The cookie company has eliminated all artificial dyes and flavors from their product, ensuring all of their MasterChef created cookies are baked to order in small batches and made with real ingredients and unbelievable flavor in every bite.

"It has always been important to me to use high quality ingredients in my cookies," says Whitney. "I carefully craft my recipes using only pure, natural ingredients such as real butter, raw cane sugar and pure vanilla extract, to bring you the homemade taste you know and love - without any artificial flavors."

Our desire to Make Cookies Great Again is with you in mind. We're creating REAL-ly good cookies your whole family can feel good about."
